NV COURT RULES: WHAT YOU ARE REQUIRED TO DISCLOSE IN A DIVORCE CASE WITHOUT CHILDREN

NV Court Rules (NRCP 16.2) requires the disclosure of certain documents within the specified timeframes for all new divorce cases. Please start gathering all of the following as soon as your case begins and provide a set of documents and information to the legal assistant working with you.

Financial Disclosure Form with paystubs attached:

Nearly all cases require the parties to file a financial disclosure form within 45 days of the service of the Complaint and Summons or an updated FDF in post-decree proceedings. You must attach your last three paystubs or other documentation of income. You can obtain a copy by contacting the legal assistant assigned to your case at our office.

- To calculate your monthly income and other numbers from a bi-weekly paycheck, you should multiply by 26 and divide by 12. Do not just double bi-weekly numbers.
- For expenses that are not regular monthly expenses, total up the last year and divide by 12.
- The net number after deducting your expenses from your income should represent what you are putting in savings each month (if a positive number) or taking out in debt each month (if a negative number). If you do not incur debt or put money in savings, your net should be Zero. Please adjust your expenses so that they accurately reflect this.
- All property and debt owned by either party should be included
